Motivation/Procedure: see back/attached paper also

Intro: “We’re going to deal some cards today... There are 3 kinds (3 different colors), and you must pick one from each color. You may not exchange a card once it is pulled.”

—These name animals, locations, and conditions or actions—
“Arrange these in front of you to make a sentence.”

—Give an example using cards YOU have picked:

“The flamingo flew into a bus.”

Then rearrange: “The bus flew beside the flamingo.”

Brainstorm a little while, then hand out cards, supplies.

Do not let students change a card, unless you know it is the only way they will work. Even then, know that this will start others wanting to change.

Special Notes: When done, they should write their sentence on the front. Early finishers may add more details or select new cards, or share.

Each word is put on a different card for them to pull. Each category is a different color, so at a glance you can tell if a student has the 3 different cards required. I use upper and lower case letters when writing on the cards.
