

After looking at the works of Sally Moore, fill in the following information, and then write a letter to Sally Moore about which sculpture you like the most, and why. Be specific.

Saying “I like it because it is pretty” is not the best way to talk about art. Saying, “I like it because it reminds of my childhood”, or “because it makes me think of _____ every time I look at it” is more detailed, and makes it easier to elaborate on the statement.
